RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

association of whose organization we gave ount a few days since is now ready to dis shares As it is with one exception (the nd Homestead Association) the pioneer or tion of that kind in the city it may be ough to state what are its purposes and nner in which it is proposed to conduct its ions The purposes of these Homestead ations are not at all speculative in the or sense of the word They are dependent profits of their investment upon the gain vance in the value of their lands conse upon the co operation of many individuals eholders and the advance on values of all nding lands by reason of the expansion of ation and demand for room outside of, but ear the city The Riverside Homestead ation has a fraction over one hundred and acres of land situated just south of lyn on the east side of the river, the south ndary line being about one mile from the landing at East Portland The tract is strip along the Wallamet river half a mile gth and another strip along the Oregon and rnia railroad half a mile in length the two being connected near the middle by two of blocks (with a street between them) the forming a figure not unlike the letter H. divided into 74 blocks 200 feet square (with s running at right angles) and 60 fractional s, along the river front The shares num , worth $60 per share It will be seen that s thus represents nearly a lot with an undi interest in the 80 fractional lots The 80 frac shares are to be sold off at the proper time e benefit of the Association shareholders g in for the proceeds in proportion to the er of shares held When all shares are and the Association shall deter to do it the choice of lots and blocks be put up at auction to the highest r the proceeds of such sales, after deducting riginal price of shares or lots to be divided ly among the whole number of shares , if a person wants a particular lot or block e willing to pay $100 or $800 premium (only s as the case may be) he pays it and takes ot or block as his individual property, the um being divided among the whole number areholders It will be seen, therefore, that thing is co-operative, and all interests alike. No man can make a dollar out of it with lso making a dollar for every other equal holder There is no chance for loss, unless rtunity, by some chance, should deny the elow the first actual cost. Whether this e to happen in the case of this particular of land must be judged by each for himself onsidering the steady and unprecedented in e on real estate in this city and its [illegible] , and at East Portland and vicinity, for the year or two it seems hardly possible for s to go back the Riverside Association all proper [illegible] to have been taken to guard against spoiling of shares No person is allowed to more than the number of shares [illegible] blocks, or twenty four lots, and voting in ining the operations of the Association is oted in the same manner The holders of s may pay down $60 per share, which will pt them from all assessments, or they may 15 quarterly with an assessment of $3 per , payable with the first installment, being in this latter case to another (and only one) assessment of $3 per share. Upon the ent of the shares in full with the [illegible] ows, the holder is entitled to his certificate his proportion of all the profits secured [illegible] ures. No officer of the Association receives pay for services except the Secretary, the $25 per month so it will be seen that the nses must be light that part of the tract lying along the river is gh plateau nearly level, about 60 to 90 feet e the water There is no part of the front of blocks but commands a splendid view land and the river for miles up and down m. That part of the tract lying along the oad is, every foot of it, of the richest loam and adapted to gardening purposes A little stream of pure water runs through at the entire length of this wing of the tract ving the means of irrigation, and power nt to supply pure water to every part of the e tract. There is not a waste lot or fractional n the entire tract. Under all these advan s, it would seem impossible that there should ny chance of loss to shareholders Within a each shareholder, if he choose may get a eet title to as many lots as his shares may esent or he may continue his interest, and d, with the Association while the [illegible] may exist.—Oregonian.

have been led to make these remarks from the that the subject of making homesteads on the out s of this city and East Portland, is being thoroughly ussed here among all classes and one homestead—the erside just south of East Portland—has already ablished The site selected is a tract of land little over a mile south of the ferry landing, a half mile nd like the latter H one side of which, a half mile ngth, borders on the river [illegible] which is a om this portion of the other prong of the H but is all a trifle above the other prong of the river can be had an [illegible] or fifty feet above the river can be had an [illegible] ew of Portland East Portland, the shipping, and Wallamette [illegible] for several les. The land is very e and is partly covered with light fir timber A of land just wide enough for two rows of blocks, an avenue between them, connects the west prong e H (which has already been described) with the ast This last tract of land is in a beautiful state of cultivation, y which is now under a high state of cultivation, the water ough its whole length runs a trout brook, the water hich is clear as crystal With a hydraulic ram the lation proposes to have water conveyed through to every portion of the homestead —Daily Bulletin.

Two hundred and ninety two districts of the State outside of the city show a Democratic gain of 4 901 The Four Wards of this city thus far reported show a Democratic loss of [illegible] In the Fifteenth Ward Hoffman has 2 307 Woodford 1 834 The Democratic General Committee of Brooklyn report that Kings county will give [illegible] 000 majority for Hoffman and Beach

In the Fourteenth (Albany District Perry [illegible] is elected to Congress

In the Fifth Congressional District Roberts has 14 [illegible] Briggs [illegible]

In the Sixth Congressional District Cox has [illegible] 24 Greeley [illegible] In the Eighth District Brooks has [illegible] majority

New York City Twelfth Ward Hoffman 4 [illegible] Woodford 1 [illegible] Eleventh Ward Hoffman [illegible] 758 Woodford 1 413 Eighth Ward—Hoffman 4 [illegible] Woodford 1 [illegible] Sixteenth Ward Hoffman [illegible] Woodford [illegible]

Onondaga county gives Woodford 2 [illegible]

In the Twenty third Congressional District Duell Rep is elected by over 3 000 The city of Troy gives Hoffman 1 453 majority The Democrats are said to concede the election of [illegible] John Rep to Congress in the Eleventh District

Rochester City gives Hoffman [illegible] Woodford 4 648

The [illegible] estimates Hoffman s majority in the State at [illegible] 000 It practically gives up the Assembly Chenango county gives 1 400 Republican majority Genesee county [illegible] Democratic Dutchess county 1 330 Republican

The vote in the First Ward New York for Mayor was Hall [illegible] Sixth Ward—Hall [illegible] Seventh Ward—Hall [illegible] Tenth Ward—Hall 2 [illegible] Eleventh Ward [illegible] Twelfth Ward—Hall 4 413 Thirteenth Ward—Hall [illegible] Sixteenth Ward—Hall 2 [illegible] Eighteenth Ward—Hall 4 113 Nineteenth Ward Hall 4 [illegible] Twentieth Ward Hall 4 [illegible] Twenty first Ward—Hall 3 [illegible] Twenty second Ward Hall [illegible] First Ward—Ledwith [illegible] Sixth Ward—Ledwith [illegible] Seventh Ward Ledwith 1 118 Tenth Ward Ledwith 1 320 Twelfth Ward Ledwith [illegible] Thirteenth Ward Ledwith [illegible] Sixteenth Ward Ledwith [illegible] Eighteenth Ward Ledwith [illegible] Nineteenth Ward—Ledwith 4 263 Twentieth Ward—Ledwith [illegible] Twenty first Ward—Ledwith [illegible] Twenty second Ward Ledwith [illegible] Total (two wards missing) Hall, [illegible] 621 , Ledwith [illegible]

In New York the Republicans elected sixteen and the Democrats fifteen Congressmen

The election in the city was exceedingly quiet one unmarked by the shooting affairs [illegible] which are generally prevalent in New York elections The Democratic vote has been very materially reduced in every ward in the city The police men and deputy marshals watched the polls very closely to the close and quite a large number of persons have been arrested for repeating During the day the United States Courts were in session before whom all prisoners were brought About 100 cases were disposed of and in most of these the prisoners were held in heavy bail

The Sixth District of the Sixth Ward gives Hoffman 18[illegible] in 1868 it gave Seymour 755

The Second Ward which gave Seymour 535 gives Hoffman [illegible] Woodford [illegible] The Third Ward gives Hoffman [illegible] Woodford 1[illegible] In 1868 it gave Seymour 814

The great diminution in the votes of repeaters shows there was abundant reason for the passage by Congress of the law regulating elections [illegible] the party of the ballot box a little at least and proves that the Democratic party needed some wholesome legislation

NEW JERSEY [illegible] THE LEGISLA[illegible]

[illegible] In the New Jersey election [illegible] Newark gives Halsey Republican for Congress [illegible] majority The returns thus far received from the First District are favorable to Hazleton (Democrat From the Second District returns favor Parker Dem and in the Third District Bird (Dem) In the Fourth District Hill Rep is probably elected Essex county gives him 1 [illegible] majority

[illegible] The Republicans have carried both branches of the Legislature [illegible] by [illegible] majority Hazleton s majority [illegible]

MARYLAND

BALTIMORE Nov 8 Archer and Swann Democrats are elected to Congress from the Second and Third Districts of Maryland respectively by 4 000 and 5 000 majority

In Maryland the latest news says the Second Congressional District [illegible]—Archer s majority [illegible] majority The Democrats claim the First District [illegible] majority and the Second by [illegible] The Republicans regard the First and Fifth Districts as undecided

In the Fourth District [illegible] elected to Congress by [illegible] majority The total [illegible] but the amount of the registered voters

DELAWARE

[illegible] show a gain of all Republican [illegible] vote [illegible] but not [illegible] the result [illegible] Dem for [illegible] majority and Biggs for Congress very nearly the same The Republicans carry Newcastle county for the Legislature and [illegible] ticket

[illegible]

[illegible] For the Second Congressional District J H Platt (Rep has a majority over Belting Cons in this city of 311 Everything passed off quietly From all we can gather Platt s majority will be upwards of [illegible] 00 in the District

RICHMOND Nov 8 —The Second Congressional District [illegible] Platt (Republican [illegible] Seventh District the [illegible] between Reynolds Independent) and Harris Conservative

The Congressional election to day resulted as follows First District [illegible] Democrat [illegible] Second District Charles H Porter Republican Third District Charles H Porter Republican Fifth District R T W Duke Democrat Eighth District William Terry Democrat [illegible] enth District F M Paxton Democrat Fourth District not heard from

ILLINOIS [illegible]

CHICAGO Nov 8 The most exciting [illegible] ever held in this city [illegible] the straight Republican ticket Farwell Rep) for Congress has probably 4 0[illegible] majority over John Wentworth [illegible] The colored vote was generally straight [illegible] The result is a terrible defeat to the dominant [illegible] between the T[illegible] and Post to defeat the Republican nominations

The vote throughout Illinois Wisconsin and Michigan was light and resulted in the general success of the Republicans but by reduced majorities In Chicago there was a good deal of excitement over the Congressional contest between Farwell (regular Republican nominee) and Wentworth (Independent) Farwell was elected by a small majority The other districts in the State remain politically as heretofore except the Eighth which has probably been carried by Robinson (Democrat) the Republican vote being divided between Merriman and Manner Prob[illegible] The status of the Legislature which elects a United States Senator is not yet known there being divisions on local questions and a great deal of scratching

In Michigan the Republican majority on the State ticket is as large as usual but that party loses the Sixth District which is carried by Judge Sutherland Democrat) The remaining districts give large Republican majorities

KENTUCKY

LOUISVILLE Nov 8 —The election in this city was quiet But little interest was manifested We polled a small vote Winchester Democrat carries the city by 1 500 to 2 000 majority over Speed, Republican Winchester s majority in the district will be near 4 000 Returns from different portions of the State indicate great apathy on the part of voters Many persons were not even aware that there was an election to day The Democrats have certainly elected their candidates in all the districts except the Eighth The result in this district is doubtful but it is thought Adams Democrat will be elected by a small majority Speed Republican carries the Fourth and Fifth Wards of this Winchester carrying the other eight Lexington Paducah and Bowling Green give Republican majorities There was a large negro vote in these cities and their vote was cast solidly for the Republicans

Winchester Democrat for Congress is elected by 1 600 majority Returns from twenty towns in the State show Republican gains owing to the negro vote The Democrats have carried seven Congressmen from the first seven districts [illegible] the Eighth and Ninth Districts the result is doubtful

The Democratic vote in Louisville falls short 8 500 of that in August The Republicans have made slight gains in nearly every town and county heard from in the State and quite a large gain in the Second [illegible] Paducah Lexington and several smaller towns

TENNESSEE

MEMPHIS Nov 8 —The official vote of this city gives Brown Democrat for Governor [illegible] Vaughn Democrat is elected to Congress in this district by probably 5 000 majority

NASHVILLE Nov 9 The election passed off quietly Brown Democrat for Governor carried Nashville and Davidson county by a large majority Prosser Democrat for Congress carried Nashville by a majority of [illegible] and is ahead in the city and county [illegible] with seven districts to hear from The total vote, as far as heard from gives Prosser 9 [illegible] Galladay 2 1[illegible] [illegible] Eight districts in Sumner give Prosser a small majority Returns from other counties make Galladay s election certain Hamilton county elects a Democratic member to the Legislature but gives Stokes 500 majority for Congress Brown is elected Governor running ahead of his Congressional ticket The First Second and Third Congressional Districts are doubtful the remainder Democratic

Uneasiness exists in diplomatic circles The feeling prevails that the Government is about to make a declaration renouncing the obligations of the treaty of Paris and it is understood that if such be the case the British Ambassador will demand his passports

England Asks Prussia s Opinion

LONDON Nov 14 —The mission of Russell Under Secretary of Foreign Affairs to Versailles is undertaken not by order of the Foreign Office but in consequence of the late Cabinet Council The object of the mission is to ascertain the views of Bismarck in relation to the threatening note from Russia read to Granville on Wednesday by the Russian Ambassador, and formally repudiating the obligations of the treaty of 1856

Russell it is understood is instructed to inform Bismarck that England Austria and Italy will unite to resist any violation of the treaty by Russia

Miscellaneous Dispatches

A Tribune correspondent telegraphing from [illegible] Nov [illegible] says Bourbaki s army [illegible] is not here [illegible] He has but three battalions of National Guards partially equipped while a distribution of arms for all classes of troops would not arm more than 8 000 The citadel has only a minimum garrison of 1 500 men the remainder being near Arras and Cambrai

Unauthenticated dispatches from Blois and Tours contain confused accounts of another victory obtained by Aurelles over Von der Tann near Artenay These dispatches state that Von der Tann having been strengthened by reinforcements had advanced from Toury southward along the road leading via Chevilley and Orleans but was attacked on the right flank with great impetuosity by Aurelles near Artenay The engagement resulted in a complete repulse of the Germans with the loss of 26 guns and the capture of a large number of prisoners

WAR MISCELLANY

A Paris letter to the Cincinnati [illegible] says that Paris the splendid capital with two millions of people is just now the loneliest dreariest desert ever heard of

A letter from London to the New York Times says The guns of Mont Valerien have been actively at work for the last two days knocking St Cloud to pieces From the German dispatches one might think it were in the hands of Vandals who were occupying it solely to protect its glories Its bombardment is another excellent sign [illegible] the [illegible] that France is awaking [illegible] to the task before her and will sacrifice every monument of art or past glory that she has in preference to complete humiliation

A London letter contains this paragraph In looking at the military problem of the moment one cannot fail to be struck with the powerful position now occupied by the little State of Belgium With her strong French sympathies she might quickly turn the tide in favor of France She has one hundred thousand well organized troops These suddenly thrown against the rear of the besieging force around Metz and Bazaine co operating could strike a blow that would wreck the whole German campaign raise the siege of Paris and turn the German armies northward again It is not improbable that there are some political reasons of this nature which make the Germans so very anxious to occupy all the fortifications in the North of France

A correspondent writes that the districts in France now occupied by the German troops are stripped of everything that will sustain life The German armies must hereafter depend for supplies upon the German States almost entirely The supplies traversing a desolated strip of two hundred miles will be constantly intercepted by the half starved and desperate inhabitants [illegible] [illegible] having nothing like mercy to expect from the invader will do the utmost to aid themselves [illegible] It may therefore be said that those who are in favor of France [illegible] could rather be pleased at the murder [illegible] phase of the war as now carried for [illegible] the German detachments scouring the country This has also retarded the bringing forward of the siege trains and ammunition necessary to any regular siege operations against the city of Paris Railways are constantly cut, bridges destroyed and every obstacle possible thrown in the way to detain the advance of this material

There are at present in the Michigan University twenty seven female students fifteen of whom are students of medicine and one of law The law student is a Miss Killgore of Indiana Rather a suggestive name for a lawyer

Election Returns in Detail

We publish this morning from California papers many additional details of late Eastern elections. It will be seen that the result is generally as favorable for the Republican party as could be hoped or expected in a series of elections in an unexciting period. Only in one locality, New York city, was any considerable interest awakened. Owing to the preparations of the national authorities to enforce the law in favor of an honest election, and to the great excitement that resulted from an agitation of the subject by Democratic partisans the day of election in that city was a very lively one. Hoffman's vote it will be seen was only 83 780 in the city against 112 522 two years ago. This decrease of the Democratic vote, and that after an exciting canvass, is very significant. It indicates that the enforcement of the Congressional election law and the presence of its terrors kept out the votes of many thousands of Democratic repeaters. Hoffman's majority in the city is twenty thousand less than it was before. With a rigorous enforcement of the law in the next Presidential election and a full vote in the Republican districts in the interior of the State, there is a good prospect that the Republicans may carry New York. With the reduction of the Democratic majority in the city they would have carried it this time had it not been for their apathy in the interior.

It seems that the Republicans have won in New Jersey wresting that State from the Democrats. This is an important gain. They have also carried Louisiana, reversing the great majority thrown in that State for Seymour. The colored vote has given the Republicans large gains in Kentucky, Delaware and Maryland, and probably several members of Congress where they had not one before. In Virginia the Republicans appear to hold their own. In Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin their majorities are reduced in consequence of the little interest taken in the elections this year. But it is absurd to require them to keep their majorities up to thirty or fifty thousand every year in each of those States, as their opponents seem to insist they shall do, or admit disastrous defeats.

War and Public Opinion

It is curious to note in the case of the present European war the anxiety of both belligerents to justify themselves in the eyes of mankind. This is a recognition of the steady growth of the power of public opinion over the acts of nations. Germany feels, notwithstanding her irresistible power, that she is responsible to the public opinion of the civilized world for the manner in which she deals with her now humbled adversary, though that adversary causelessly forced her into war. Hence Bismarck's frequent circulars in regard to the situation in France and the intentions of Germany. He argues questions not as between the belligerents, but as before the tribunal of mankind. So these circulars are but so many appeals to the judgment of the world for the justification of acts which no superiority of force could alone justify. A sense of responsibility to the judgment of mankind is also to be perceived, but in a less degree, in the circulars issued by members of the French Government. This indication of the growth of the power of public opinion over the acts of nations is a sign of hopeful progress in national justice and civilization. The time was when a victorious power which had its enemy at its feet, would have laughed to scorn the judgment of the world, and would have dealt with its vanquished enemy as it saw fit, without regard to the world's sense of moderation and justice. Such has been the history of victorious nations for centuries. But now it is conceded that even a vanquished people who have unjustly provoked the war which leads to their utter overthrow, are not wholly defenseless. In the present war the German Premier recognizes this fact, hence his frequent circulars, designed to obtain for his King and country the favorable judgment of mankind. And, as a cotemporary expresses it, "the French lies about the Uhlans, and the German exaggerations about the Turcos, though less respectable and less formal, are also either so many attempts to resort to the same great tribunal for the decision of the questions which the sword, no matter how deftly wielded, must have unsolved—or to get, on one side or the other, a power which, though it may seem of little consequence on the battle-field, is what gives victories their fruits, and makes defeat hopeless."

The Herald Prophesies

The Herald edifies its readers with observations on the November elections and their bearing upon the next Presidential contest. And thus it opens its discourse:

> There are two things pretty conclusively settled by the November elections, the first of which is that Gen. Grant will not be the radical nominee, in the Presidential campaign of 1872, and the second of which is, that the Democracy will achieve an easy and overwhelming victory. Gen. Grant is no politician. In fact he exhibits as little sagacity in the political, as he exhibited in the military world.

Here is discriminating criticism. But it seems to be pretty well established that Gen. Grant displayed "sagacity" enough in the "military world" to very effectually quell a certain Democratic rebellion. He put down the fighting wing of the Democratic party, and as we are told that his political is equal to his military sagacity, of course he will be able to triumph politically. The Herald asserts that he will not be renominated. He is as certain to be renominated as he lives, and as certain to be reelected as renominated. That paper asserts that its party will have an easy and overwhelming victory in 1872. Of course the Herald would not give anything to be assured of it! That paper proceeds in this ridiculous manner:

> Who the nominee of that party will be we have no means of surmising, nor do we care. The fates are against it, and it would be a miracle indeed, if it could win in the next Presidential contest. * * * Really there is not one peg on which a radical can hang a hope. No matter who is nominated by the Democratic party he is destined to triumph. And if it will only place a Western man in nomination, a man in full accordance with the masses on the main issue, and will hold its convention early, so as to give us a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether, we will send a man to the White House on the 4th of March 1873, with a larger electoral and popular vote than was ever before vouchsafed to any President.

Now every observing and intelligent person knows that there is not one chance in a thousand for the Democratic party to triumph in the next Presidential election. No candid Democrat would express a belief that his party will succeed in that contest. The odds are so heavily against it that its chances are nothing at all. Can any one suppose that since the Republicans can elect so large a majority of the Congress this year there is any probability whatever that they will fail to elect a President two years hence when they put forth all their strength. It will be the [illegible] of the Republican party [illegible] never [illegible] will the Herald write what [illegible]

What a Few Votes May Do

A few votes more or less sometimes produce curious results in politics. An Eastern paper says: In New Jersey twenty three years ago the election of [illegible] Democratic Assemblymen by an aggregate of [illegible] votes gave that party the United States Senator and brought about the important changes. The result [illegible] the late election in Oregon. An aggregate of less than sixty votes in [illegible] counties would have given the Republicans the Legislature and a United States Senator and averted the corruption and disgrace of the late session.

Another instance showing how a few votes may produce important changes in politics may be cited. In the recent elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio 100 votes elected four Democratic Congressmen—three in the former State and one in the latter. The three in Pennsylvania were elected by fifty three votes. One has a majority of eleven, another of fifteen and a third of twenty seven. The successful candidate in Ohio has fifty three majority. Nothing could more conclusively demonstrate the importance of bringing out every vote than these figures, and it is not surprising that political leaders in view of such results urge so pertinaciously the duty of voting upon their adherents.

Educating Indians

It is stated that the forthcoming annual report of the Commissioner of Education will show some very interesting facts in relation to the efforts of the Government to educate the Indians. The amount appropriated by the last Congress specifically for the education of Indians by tribes was one hundred and sixteen thousand dollars, and an additional sum of one hundred thousand dollars was appropriated to be used generally by the Secretary of the Interior. This is more than was appropriated in any one year for this purpose for half a century. The sum appropriated altogether for Indian education has amounted to about eight millions of dollars, while it is estimated that about five hundred millions has been spent in fighting them. It is estimated that there are over eighty two thousand Indian children of school age.

We haven't much hope that any very valuable result will be accomplished in this direction. If Indians elsewhere are like those on our Oregon reservations, a very considerable item of the expense of educating them will be incurred in hiring them to attend school. There is not much encouragement to attempt to teach persons who are unable to see the utility of education and demand to be paid at least a dollar a day, that is ordinary wages for labor, to go to a free school.

Democratic Misrule

In an article on the cost of governing New York city, the San Francisco Commercial Herald contrasts the administration of New York with that of the United States and shows up the fruits of Democratic rule in any but a flattering light. While it requires a tax of $32 50 per capita to govern New York city, Gen. Grant's administration imposes a tax of only $10 28 to defray all the expenses of the General Government, which include the payment of principal and interest of the public debt, and the maintenance of all the costly departments—War, Navy, Post Office, Interior, State, etc, etc,—comprising the government. But the Republican members of Grant's Cabinet don't build marble stables with black walnut and mahogany stalls, elaborately decorated with gilding and rich mouldings, out of the taxes extorted from the people as do the Democratic officials of the Empire City.

New York is a very large, rich, influential, and grand city—the finest on this continent, says the paper mentioned—the great commercial and financial heart toward which all the blood of the country gravitates, but it is also the worst governed and its municipal exactions the most grinding. The United States contain a population of 40 000,000. New York 800 000, as shown by the last census. The taxes, of all kinds imposed by the General Government during the year ended June 30, 1870 amounted to $411,250,000, or $10 28 to each man, woman and child in the country. During the same period the cost of governing New York city amounted to $26 000,000, which is at the rate of $32 50 to each man, woman and child in that city. The General Government paid off $190 000,000 of the principal of our public debt, $128 000 000 more in the shape of interest on that debt, $28 000 000 more to maimed soldiers, soldiers' widows and orphans, and $56,000 000 more for other expenses entailed by the war, making a grand total payment of extraordinary demands in no wise connected with the regular expenses of the Government, or required for its conduct. This leaves $80,250,000 available for carrying on the Government, and with this amount the army and navy were paid, Congress, the Executive and Judicial branches of the country were conducted, the cost of levying and collecting revenue was defrayed, the Indian department maintained, the postal service kept up and enlarged, scientific explorations organized and set to work, ambassadors and consuls salaried, and all other expenses incident to Government honorably liquidated. Here we have the spectacle of 40 000 000 of people governed, and well governed, for $86 000 000, while a portion of the same people, numbering only 800 000 actually expended $26,000,000 for their municipal government. Were the people of the United States governed at the same cost as those of New York city it would require for that purpose not less than $1 300 000 000. It must be remembered that in addition to the tax of $32 50 per capita exacted from the people of New York city must be added the $10 28 required by the General Government, making a total tax of $42 78 on each individual. With these figures to confront us it cannot be doubted that New York has the most costly city government in the world!

Judge Whitson.—The Idaho World has the following complimentary notice of Judge Whitson, late of this State, who now occupies a seat on the Supreme Bench of Idaho:

The District Court, after a session of four weeks, adjourned on last Saturday, October 29th. Quite a large amount of business was transacted during the term, notwithstanding the greater portion of the time was taken up in the trial of criminal cases. It was the first term of Court presided over by Judge Whitson in this Territory, and in saying that as a Judge he has given universal satisfaction thus far, we believe we express the sentiments of not only the bar but the people irrespective of party, who have been brought in contact with His Honor in his official capacity. Though young in years the Judge, from the manner in which he presides and conducts the business of his Court, appears to be an old hand on the Bench, at least we should not consider him a new hand at the bellows. Before the final adjournment for the term, the Bar, recognizing in Judge Whitson an able, upright and honest Judge, and being desirous of testifying to His Honor their high appreciation of his character, adopted unanimously a resolution expressive of their sentiments, which will be found in the Court proceedings of this issue. We heartily endorse the resolution, and hope that Judge Whitson may long preside as Judge of the Second Judicial District.

Another Yankee notion is about to be introduced in Europe. Pullman will start some of his palace cars there shortly.

From the Statesman: We are informed by Mr Smith, the deaf mute, who will have charge of this Institute that it will open this week in a building below the woolen factory owned by J B McClane, and that its benefits will be offered to all deaf and dumb persons between eight and thirty years of age who are free from contagious or offensive diseases. Where parents are able to support their children a charge will be made of $100 to $150 payable quarterly in advance. No charge will be made in cases where parents are too poor to be able to afford this, except to furnish clothing and bedding. Mr Smith says children will be cared for as well as possible.

The Walla Walla Statesman has this account of certain Democratic proceedings in Umatilla county: Tom Filtcroft, the defaulting and absconding Treasurer of Umatilla county, Oregon, who was a short time since so ruthlessly snatched from his home in Nevada on a requisition from the Governor of Oregon to answer a charge of defalcation, embezzlement, or something of the kind, was brought to Pendleton a few days ago and applied to His Honor Judge Bailey, County Judge of Umatilla county, for a writ of habeas corpus. The writ was granted, and Mr Filtcroft was brought before the Judge, who, after hearing the pros and cons, concluded that it was wrong to hold in durance vile so fine haired a gentleman as the prisoner, on so frivolous a charge as that of purloining the paltry sum of $5 000 from the Treasury of that county, and discharged him, because of some informality in the writ of proceedings. Mr F then had the magnanimity to compromise with the County Commissioners, and pay part of the costs in the case of Umatilla County, plaintiffs, vs Filtcroft and his bondsmen, defendants, in which case the county had got judgment for about $8,000. After this display of generosity, Mr F left for White Pine, leaving his bondsmen to pay the remainder of the costs in his case, together with the judgment.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

A R Robertson was elected Mayor of Victoria on the 10th inst.

Six Victorians were among the fortunate investors in the Mercantile lottery. They win an average of about $75 each.

A fire at Cedar Hill, near Victoria, on Wednesday morning, destroyed a barn, a new buggy, three cows and a quantity of hay and grain.

On Wednesday the birth day of the Prince of Wales was celebrated with races on Beacon Hill. The day was generally observed as a holiday.

A fire at Victoria, on the 6th inst, destroyed a building at the corner of Wharf and Fourth streets, occupied as a Hall by the Odd Fellow's. Loss $5 500.

The exhibition of a talking head is exciting the wonder of Victorians. The Colonist says it opens and shuts its eyes, nods and talks! The table legs and the floor underneath the table are plainly seen. The top of the table is scarce an inch in thickness—and of course it would be impossible to conceal a man's body within that. There's the head, and where's the body?

THE TERRITORIES

An Immigrant Aid Society was organized at Walla Walla on the 8th inst.

The land disposed of at the Olympia land office during the month of October was 3 741 acres.

W W Theobalds of Seattle, has been appointed Register in Bankruptcy for Washington Territory.

From the Port Townsend Message: On Tuesday last, about noon, our harbor presented quite a lively appearance in the steamer line. No less than eight steamers were in sight: the Anderson and California alongside the wharf, the Isabel just coming in from Victoria, the Favorite just arrived from Utsalady, the revenue cutter Lincoln at anchor, and the Chehalis, Colfax and Walker rounding Point Ringgold.

We see by the Olympia Transcript that J B Chapman, after an absence from Steilacoom of seventeen years, has returned and laid claim to nearly all the town site of that place. It seems that in 1851 Chapman settled on the land upon which Steilacoom now stands, that he soon left and his son, J M Chapman, lived his four years out and got a title under the donation act, since which time he and the Sheriff have sold pretty near all the land to different parties. But now after the absence of seventeen years, this J B Chapman turns up, claims the land upon which the purchasers have made valuable improvements, and now it seems he proposes to build a railroad from his reclaimed property through this place to the Union Pacific railroad. This man Chapman is truly an enterprising railroad man.

CURRENT NOTES

The mackerel catch for the season now closing has been much larger than that of last year.

Hale Storms is a candidate for Sheriff in an Illinois county. If he should be elected, rogues would probably look out for shelter at once.

During the present year 3 000 Scandinavian immigrants have been brought to the State of Mississippi through the agency of Mr Bleckhold.

The latest statistics show that the damage to Matanzas, Cuba, by the recent hurricane reached $6 000 000, and within the jurisdiction of that city, $2 000 000.

The census returns show the population of Baltimore to be 26 [illegible]99. In 1868 a local census showed a population of [illegible] 2 116, and now the Baltimore papers are very much dissatisfied at the result.

A clever Chicagoian, of magnificent appearance, who represented himself as the agent of a metallic roofing company, recently succeeded in procuring the signatures of several wealthy farmers in Ohio to blank promissory notes, which he subsequently filled out to suit himself and had discounted. By this means he is supposed to have raised between twenty and thirty thousand dollars.

[illegible] Apperson of the Dayton and the [illegible] crew had some fine sport [illegible] Monday in trying to capture a fine buck which was swimming the river below the Yamhill [illegible] mere chance he reached the shore [illegible] the thicket. Travel by this [illegible] more comforts than any other [illegible] from Portland. The [illegible] was taken out of the dry dock on Monday, having been lengthened 20 feet [illegible] after the premium model, with [illegible] She is now one of the finest boats on the upper river—the longest one on the line. The Success has taken her place in the dry dock for repairs and embellishment.

VERY WIDE OF THE FACT.—Yesterday morning's Herald states that when the present county officers assumed their places there were in the treasury $[illegible] and that now there is no money in the treasury. The design evidently is to create the impression that the funds have been expended profligately. If its other figures furnished by the Herald, that paper is as wide of the fact as in this particular case, its statements can scarcely be relied upon. The statement of the finances signed by Ben L Norden on the 5th of July 1870 shows that the amount of all funds then in the treasury was $20 400 94. Of this there belonged to the school fund $5,536 18 in coin and $[illegible] in legal tenders; to the State school land fund $[illegible] in coin and $430 [illegible] in currency, and to the State Poll tax fund $37; total of funds not in the treasury for county purposes $6 [illegible]. Take this sum from the total amount in the treasury, and we have $13 956 40, for county purposes including the pauper fund. Against this amount, the out going officers left a large total of outstanding warrants—indebtedness created mostly during the two years last preceding July 1870. Let the Herald correct its arithmetic.

WHERE THE CARCASS IS, ETC.—Saith the Scriptures: "Where the carcass is, there the eagles shall be gathered"—or, at all events that is about the substance of it. We have had the text exemplified within the last two days at the court house in this city. There is a legal carcass there, a fat one—a docket of over three hundred cases. The feast offered has brought out the legal eagles in strong force, not less than forty of them within the bar at once of all conceivable descriptions, order, accipitres, family falconidæ and sub family aquilinæ, genus American grey, genus American bald headed, genus cosmopolitan golden, genus spotted, genus fishers, genus white tailed, genus crested, genus harpy, genus eagle bird by chance," and genus stealers. With such an assembly of birds of prey what chance shall one carcass have, though fat and juicy like this now lying on the legal plains of Multnomah? What a wreck of bones clean picked and offal wide-strewn, shall we see when this hungry, screaming and flesh tearing flock of ravenous fowl shall have taken its flight.

A TERRIBLE ENCOUNTER.—We are informed that a fearful encounter occurred yesterday, between a Mr Boon and a California lion, which he had been for some time training. Mr Boon had taken the lion from its cage, tied him to a small tree, and was in the act of feeding him. Just then a small dog came running by, the lion instantly sprang at the dog, caught it and was proceeding at once to dissect it. Mr Boon attempted to rescue the dog, when the lion turned upon him, severely lacerating with teeth and claws his left arm from the shoulder down. Finding himself likely to get the worst of the fight, he drew a Deringer from his pocket and shot the lion through the heart, killing him instantly. Mr Boon is the person in charge of the den of performing lions lately exhibited here in the circus. The lion killed is said to have been less wild than the African lions, but far more treacherous and therefore more dangerous.

VICARIOUS ATONEMENT.—We hear of an amusing case which occurred the other day at Oregon City. A fellow was tried in a justice's court for some offence and being convicted was sentenced to pay a fine or be imprisoned for a certain number of days, one day for each two dollars of the fine, as prescribed by law. The chap either had no money to pay the fine or did not choose to pay it, but he obtained bail and went home. A day or two afterward he returned with another chap who had agreed to serve out his term of imprisonment for him for one dollar a day, and he gravely requested the officer to take his proxy and lock him up. The officer, however, could not see it in that light, and the original Dampbool had to settle in full. But really there seems to be a philosophical question. Why not allow a man to be imprisoned by proxy as well as to pay his fine with that same proxy's money? [illegible] vicarious atonement either way.

PERSONAL.—We notice among the passengers per Oriflamme now out from San Francisco for this port the names of Rev T L Eliot and family, just returning from a prolonged visit to the Eastern States; F A Hawley of the firm of Hawley, Dodd & Co, who also has been East; Fred A Crawford, formerly of this city, who has been for a couple of years in Alaska; W A Buchanan, formerly of the Dalles, who has been East for several months; Miss Nellie Cummings, formerly connected with the Bates dramatic company, and quite a number of Portland people who have been to California on business.

CITY.

[illegible] Items.—Circuit Court opened at Lafayette on Monday last with a fair docket. Fine [illegible] at that place, and some late evidences of improvement in repairs, etc., around town. Its [illegible] are sanguine of eventually being favored with a railroad, as the railroad surveying party passed between them and McMinnville on Friday last. Large stores of wheat are held there in the [illegible], waiting another rise in the Yamhill [illegible], as the last one was not quite enough to [illegible] the Dayton to reach there. Many of the [illegible] are waiting for a rise in prices before selling. One round dollar is the figure looked for. [illegible] is also improving somewhat in the building line. A new steam sash, door and furniture factory is going up, and various enlargements and repairs in other parts of town, indicate that [illegible] not dead, even if she sleepeth. The hope [illegible] railroad near by still lives, notwithstanding [illegible]. It is thought, too, that the apparently [illegible] ditch company may eventually be revived [illegible] again. On account of the low stage of the river, Dayton has done the bulk of grain shipping on that river this season. About fifty thousand bushels have been shipped through [illegible]'s warehouse, besides a large but unknown quantity (tons) from Brown & Martin's. Brown & [illegible]'s new stores, new Odd Fellows' Hall, supplied with the finest silver wrought regalia in the State, thriving lodge of Good Templars, several new dwellings, and the best hotel in the county, are among the notable items, aside from [illegible] lumber mill and large flouring mill, with capacity for three hundred barrels per day. Large quantities of flocks of geese, ducks and grouse, at this season, are found in the vicinity of Dayton. [illegible] of the Dayton, and the passengers and crew had some fine sport on Monday in trying to capture a fine buck, which was swimming the river below the Yamhill, but by a mere chance he reached the shore and escaped into the thicket......Travel by this [illegible] is quite brisk, as it combines more comfort than any other to and from Portland...... The Fannie Patton was taken out of the dry dock on Monday, having been lengthened 20 feet and formed after the premium model, with [illegible] rooms added and re-fitted. She is now one of the finest boats on the upper river—the [illegible] in the line. The Success has taken her place in the dry dock for repairs and embellishment.

Wind of the Fact.—Yesterday morning's Herald states that when the present county officers entered their places, there were in the treasury $24,000; and that now there is no money in the treasury. The design evidently is to create the impression that the funds have been squandered profligately. If in other figures furnished in the Herald, that paper is as wide of the mark as in this particular case, its statements are scarcely to be relied upon. The statement of the balance signed by Ben L. Norden on the 5th of July, 1870, shows that the amount of all funds in the treasury was $20,400 94. Of this, belonged to the school fund $5,536 19 in coin and $111 32 in legal tenders; to the State school fund $429 88 in coin and $430 05 in currency; and to the State Poll tax fund $37; of funds not in the treasury for county purposes $[illegible]44 54. Take this sum from the total in the treasury, and we have $13,956 40, for county purposes, including the pauper fund. [illegible] this amount, the out-going officers left a [illegible] of out-standing warrants—indebtedness, [illegible] mostly during the two years last preceding July, 1870. Let the Herald correct its [illegible].

Where the Carcass is, etc.—Saith the [illegible]: "Where the carcass is, there the eagles shall be gathered"—or, at all events, [illegible] the substance of it. We have had this exemplified within the last two days at the Court House in this city. There is a legal carcass there, a fat one—a docket of over three hundred cases. With such an assembly of birds [illegible] what chance shall one carcass [illegible], though fat and juicy like this now lying on the [illegible] plains of Multnomah? What a wreck [illegible] picked, and offal wide-strewn, shall [illegible] when this hungry, screaming and flesh-[illegible] flock of "ravenous fowl" shall have taken flight!

[illegible] Encounter.—We are informed that a fearful encounter occurred yesterday, between Mr. Boon and a California lion, which he had for some time training. Buchanan, formerly of the Dalles, who has been East for several months; Miss Nellie Cummings, formerly connected with the Bates dramatic company; and quite a number of Portland people who have been to California on business.

Brief Mention.—The Geo. S. Wright brought from Alaskan ports a large number of seal and other furs.

The steamers Grant and Wasp, undergoing repairs, will be out in a day or two.

Messrs. Stitzel & Upton have sold within a month about sixty thousand dollars worth of real estate, mostly in the city.

Robberies of clothes lines in this city are frequently complained of. Where is the Metropolitan Police, which was to put an end forever to all crime and misdemeanors?

Small Pox.—Dr. Belt of Salem, came down yesterday, and from a person who conversed with him, we learn that he says there is no longer any question about the "prevailing disease" being small pox. The number of cases have increased both at Salem and in the surrounding country. Mrs. T. W. Davenport, who contracted the disease from her husband, has died of it, and her children are very low. This is the only fatal case we have heard of, though many of the late cases are more severe than were the early ones.

Steamer Change.—The propeller George S. Wright will be temporarily laid up, and the California will be put on her route to Sitka. The latter steamer is, this morning, advertised to sail at 4 o'clock, Thursday, the 17th inst., for Victoria, Port Townsend, San Juan, Nanaimo, Fort Tongas, Fort Wrangle and Sitka, connecting at Port Townsend with all up-sound steamers.

Board of Trade.—Regular monthly meeting Monday, Nov. 15—Present W. S. Ladd, President, and John M. Drake, Secretary. A quorum failing to appear, the Board adjourned till December.

Vessel off the Bar.—When the Geo. S. Wright came in, a vessel, too distant to be made out, was seen off the bar.

RULES OF THE CIRCUIT COURT

Yesterday we published some new rules adopted by Judge Upton, and now, for the convenience of the Court, bar, and litigants, we publish the rules heretofore adopted:

1. All cases in which the answer is filed, or the time for answering expires on or before the first day of the term, will be for trial at such time, and be placed on a list to be known as the trial calendar, otherwise an issue of fact will not be tried at such term except by consent of parties.

2. A case that is for trial upon an issue of fact may, on the first day of the term, be placed at the foot of the trial calendar on the written consent of the parties, or for good cause shown by affidavit.

3. Actions that are at issue upon the facts at the time of calling the calendar on the first day of the term will be taken up and tried in the order in which they stand upon the calendar, unless otherwise specially ordered.

4. The time for the trial of criminal cases will be fixed by special order at each term.

5. After law cases are disposed of, issues of fact joined in Equity cases, will be heard in the same order provided for the trial of actions.

6. Issues of fact joined after the calling of the calendar in the cases provided for in Rule 1 will, on motion of either party, be placed at the foot of the trial calendar, and will be for trial in the order in which such motions are made.

7. A motion for continuance, if the case is at issue on a question of fact, must be filed on the first day of the term, or as soon thereafter as the party moving has knowledge or information of the facts upon which the motion is to be predicated.

8. In all actions and suits wherein a defendant has appeared, the attorney, whether for the plaintiff or defendant, upon filing any pleading, or any motion in relation to a pleading, shall, within the time required by law for filing such pleading or motion, serve a copy thereof on the attorney of the adverse party, if such attorney of the adverse party has an office at the county seat of the county where the action is pending; and if such attorney has no office at the county seat, then such copy shall be left at the office of the County Clerk, and if such service is omitted and default is taken or claimed, the default will be set aside upon a showing of want of knowledge of the filing of such pleading or motion.

9. Any demurrer, motion or other question of law, not involving a trial of the cause on its merits, may be brought on for hearing by entering in the motion book the title of the cause, the names of the attorneys, the nature of the question involved and the date of the entry. Either party may make the entry.

10. Each Saturday during the term will be set apart for hearing demurrers, motions and such questions of law, unless otherwise specially ordered. Days thus set apart are known in these Rules as "motion days." Other days besides Saturdays will be thus set apart, by special order, and made motion days if the business of the term require it. The first day of each term will be a motion day, but not to the exclusion of other business.

11. To entitle a question to be heard on any motion day, except the first day of the term, it must be entered with the date of entry on the motion book before noon of the day preceding such motion day. Provided, that motions or demurrers filed after noon of the day preceding the motion day, may on the same day, be put on the motion docket by the adverse party, and shall stand on the same footing as other motions and demurrers, regularly on the motion docket.

12. On motion days cases will be taken up and heard, on application of either party, in the order in which they are entered in the motion book, unless otherwise for good cause, specially ordered.

13. If a case that is entered on the motion book is not taken up in its order, it may, by consent of the parties, be taken up af er all other cases on the motion book are disposed of; otherwise, it must be again set down for hearing on any other motion day.

14. Ex-parte motions and motions for continuance will be heard on any day.

15. When a demurrer to a complaint is sustained and the plaintiff is allowed to amend, the case will stand continued for the term, at the option of the defendant.

16. When particular or special instructions to the jury are desired, the request must be presented in writing to the Judge, before the last address of counsel to the jury.

17. So much of the foregoing rules as relates to motion days, and to the time of hearing demurrers, motions and other questions of law, will not apply to any general or special term, at which all the civil cases pending amount to less than forty.

At the opening of the Court the foregoing rules ordered spread upon the records.

Charley Perkins' First Deer.—Charley and his "few friends" returned yesterday from their deer hunting expedition, having had great success. The ambition of Charley's life was gratified—he killed a real, live deer! and brought it home to prove the slaughter. The boys do say, though, that Charley came near going off in a conniption when he found that he, Charley, had really killed a live deer and killed it dead. He chased the poor thing in a boat and shot at it; chased it again and shot at it again; the deer whopped over on its side, and gave up the ghost. Then (the boys say) Charley keeled over backward in the boat (guns will kick so) and shouted: "By golly, boys, I've killed a deer! I've killed a deer! Don't I wish —— was here to see it!" This may be just a way the boys have of putting up things, but we are half inclined to believe every word of it. The first dear or the first deer are so apt to make one nervous! Venison, ducks and sich are abounding now at the Exchange.

East Portland.—The Assessor of East Portland stated to the Board of Trustees at their meeting on Monday evening, that the total valuation of taxable property will probably reach over $575,000.

Ordinances were read and referred, to authorize J. B. Stevens to construct wharves along the city front, on lands belonging to him; to permit the O. and C. R. R. Co. to change the channel of Asylum creek; and to fix the salary of Assessor, not over $150 per annum.

The question of establishing uniform street grades was discussed and a resolution was adopted requesting the proper committee to take the matter into consideration and to report thereon.

A resolution looking to securing a ferry landing at the foot of J street, was also adopted.

Lucille.—This beautiful drama was repeated last night at Oro Fino Theatre, to a good house, and with very fine effect. At the close Mr. and Mrs. Bates were called before the curtain, and there were calls for Vinson, but he did not appear. The entertainments offered at this place of amusement are constantly growing better, and the audiences larger. The season promises to be more than usually successful.

Portland Library.—The following new books have just been added to to the Portland Library: Twenty-nine volumes Congressional Debates, from 1824 to 1837; The Diplomatic Correspondence of the American Revolution, from 1776 to 1783—six volumes; The Diplomatic Correspondence of the United States of America, from 1783 to 1789—three volumes.

Good Templars' Singing School.—This school is held every Wednesday evening at Good Templars' Hall, corner of Alder and Front streets. Every one is invited to attend—particularly all the members are requested to meet this evening, as business of importance will be transacted.

At J. O'Niel & Co.'s Clothing Store on First street, can be found as fine a collection of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods as any place in the city, consisting of Coats, Pants, Vests, "Star Shirts," underclothing, hosiery, collars, cuffs, ties, &c., &c., together with Boys' Suits and Clothes of all sorts of the best quality. They also make to order on short notice of home or foreign manufacture. Call and see their goods.

Public Speakers and Singers will find "Brown's Bronchial Troches" beneficial in clearing the voice before speaking or singing, and relieving the throat after any unusual exertion of the vocal organs, having a peculiar adaptation to affections which disturb the organs of speech. For Coughs and Colds the Troches are effectual.

Bad Practice.—You might as well expect to relieve and cure an inflamed eye by dusting irritating powders into it, as to expect to subdue and cure Catarrh (which is an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the air passages in the head) by the use of irritating snuffs or strong caustic solutions. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures Catarrh by its mild, soothing action, which subdues the inflammation and restores the natural secretion of the mucous follicles. The proprietor offers $500 for a case of Catarrh that he cannot cure. Sent by mail on receipt of sixty cents. Sold by druggists. Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y.

SELTZER
APERIENT.

Never Nauseate a Weak Stomach.—The condition of a weak stomach was never yet improved by cathartic drugs. They merely increase the irritation, which it is all-important to allay. There is no preparation in existence which so quickly and certainly relieves nausea as TARRANT'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. Its immediate effect is to soothe and refresh the uneasy organ. It arrests vomiting or the disposition to vomit, at once, and carries off without pain, through the intestines, the morbid emetic matter which is the provocative of nausea. A dose of the Aperient will always effectually "settle the stomach" after a night's dissipation.

HOW METZ FELL

The New York [illegible] has a two column [illegible] giving particulars of the surrender of Metz. The writer says the Germans were astonished at the result when the strength of Bazaine's army became known. An army and a fortress had capitulated to an investing army only a fraction larger than itself. The account proceeds:

The tragedy was completed, but there is another side to the story which still remains to be reviewed. According to the statement of Gen. Von Zastrow, who held the woods of Vaux on the morning of August 10, after the battle of Gravelotte, Bazaine could have avoided being inclosed in Metz. After he was thus enclosed, he could have, according to Metzian statement, made a sortie and joined McMahon more easily by far than McMahon could reach him. After most of Bazaine's cavalry and artillery horses had been eaten, this proceeding was of course more difficult; still his movements are said to have lacked determination, and in the last two sorties to have been even frivolous. This is charged to a plot in behalf of the Regency by which this army was to try to remain in statu quo until the conclusion of the war in western France, and then was to become available, with Prussian consent, for Bonapartist purposes. Bazaine himself expected in that case to be the Governor of the Prince Imperial and the virtual Regent.

Nearly all the Metzians seem to believe this, and their most influential people have avowed such belief to me. Since the time of the investment, Bazaine has never been seen in the camps except on extraordinary occasions, never at all in the ambulances, which are in part constructed in numerous railway box-wagons on the Place Royal. Equally seldom has he been seen in the city. The civil authorities had to find him at the Barrier St. Martin; he did not appear at the City Hall once. He rarely, if ever, said a word to encourage his troops. Canrobert sometimes cheered their hardships a little, and then they would cry, "Vive Canrobert! A bas Bazaine!"

BAZAINE FEARED HIS OWN MEN.

Toward the last he dared not show himself to his own men for fear of assassination, and the terribly relaxed discipline is assuredly the cause of the hasty capitulation, when a week's rations for all were on hand. On the morning of the 29th five soldiers lay dead of starvation at Montigny, while the staff still indulged in luxurious meals. Four days' rations were given to the entire army that morning (29th), but for two days previous they had received none. No beef nor pork had been obtainable at any price for a week, but on that morning, before anything had arrived in town, the shops had plenty thereof, which goes to prove the charges current in the town that speculators had seized a quantity of food, and that a rational system of apportionment, such as existed during the last ten days, if introduced at first, and combined with requisitions, would have prevented much waste, and enabled the fortress to hold out a month longer.

HIGH PRICE OF PROVISIONS.

The Staff used at first to feed their horses on bread. Recently, prices had reached the following maximum: Sugar, $6 a pound, salt, $3 a pound, one ham, $60, one potato, 9 cents, one onion, 12 cents. A little pig, caught near Gravelotte, sold for $150. During five weeks, amputations have been performed without chloroform or ether and wounds dressed without carbolic acid.

DISEASE AND DEATH.

There are more than nineteen thousand sick and wounded. During the siege thirty-five thousand persons have died in the town alone, the greater part from lack of proper care. The prevailing diseases are varioloid, spotted typhus, and dysentery. Scurvy has not prevailed, though even the sick have, for over three weeks, received their horse steaks and horse broth without salt. The reported discovery of a saline spring at St. Julien was a hoax, contrived by putting salt into the spring to encourage the army.

GENERAL OPPOSITION TO THE SURRENDER.

When the capitulation became known, the people were furious. The National Guards refused to lay down their arms. On the afternoon of the 28th inst., a Captain of Dragoons appeared at the head of a body of troops who swore that they would sooner die than yield. Albert Collignon, the editor of an ultra-Democratic daily newspaper, the Journal de Metz, rode about on a white horse firing a pistol and exhorting them to sally forth and seek victory or death to escape impending shame. He was followed by a lady singing the Marseillaise. This produced terrible excitement. The doors of the Cathedral were burst open and the tocsin was sounded and the bell rung nearly all night.

When Gen. Coffinieres appeared to pacify them, three pistol-shots were fired at him. Finally, by the aid of two regiments of the line, he quietly dispersed the mob, but all night the sounds of grief, indignation, and terror continued. Respectable women ran about the streets tearing their hair and flinging their bonnets and laces under their feet, seeking their friends, and asking wildly, "What will become of our children?" Soldiers, drunk and sober, tumbled hither and thither in irregular groups, with their caps off and their sabres broken, sobbing and weeping like children, and crying, "Oh pauvre Metz! Oh ma pauvre Metz! Tout est perdu!"

Yesterday I was closeted with the Mayor and the City Council during two hours, while they detained me as the first stranger that had entered the town, to ask all manner of questions—some childish in their uncertainty and terror—as to what the Prussians would do, how they would do it, and how they must be met. It was as if they had never seen or known a Prussian. They demanded to know whether their already destitute larders must still supply the troops, and whether they would be personally maltreated if unable to furnish what was required. They were relieved by hearing that a thousand wagons were ready at Courcelles to bring provisions hither, and also that there are funds in London ready to be applied to their relief, in response to the appeal of the Mayors of Briey and other communes, published in English and American journals, saying, "Help is needed quickly."

GERMAN SOLDIERS GIVE THEIR RATIONS TO THE FRENCH.

The entire besieging army voluntarily gave up their bread rations yesterday to feed their French captives. This deeply touched the Metzians, and did much to relieve their fears. At noon a Prussian railway inspector made the trip by rail from Ars to Union Station, situated a mile south of Metz, and to-day perfect communication by rail exists between Saarbruck, Metz and Nancy. The road was little injured.

But few German prisoners were found in Metz, the French had not kept those they had taken when they were in a condition to be returned. On leaving Metz last night I noticed on the faces of all the German soldiers a look of quiet satisfaction, nothing more. Not one of the French officers and soldiers who swarmed all about, even when intoxicated—which was surprisingly unfrequent—wore any other expression than a look of sadness or defiance, the latter not being common, and occurring chiefly among the younger officers.

DEMORALIZATION.

I am informed that the French loss in killed in the various affairs since August 18th, added to the deaths from sickness in the town, were forty-two thousand. Bazaine himself declined the Prince's generous proposal to allow the prisoners to lay down their arms outside of the works in view of their conquerors, instead of laying them down in the arsenal, saying that he could not guarantee their behavior. The Imperial Guards alone had preserved discipline sufficient to be trusted to pass in armed review. The inhabitants had never ceased to hope for the appearance of Bourbaki's army from Lille, or of the Army of the Loire, or of some other relieving force. But the troops themselves during the last few weeks could no longer be deceived, as they got better information through the German outposts.

Their demoralization, due largely to hunger, was bitterly and openly complained of by the officers. At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Bazaine passed through Ars, on his way to Wilhelmshohe, in a closed carriage marked with his name, escorted by several officers of his staff on horseback.

BAZAINE ASSAILED BY WOMEN.

The women of the village had heard of his coming, and awaited him with cries of "Traitor! [illegible] brigand! [illegible] our husbands whom you have betrayed! Give us back our children whom you have sold!" They broke the carriage windows, and would have lynched the Marshal but for the intervention of Prussian gendarmes. Three days ago, when I sent the first news of the capitulation, I told you I was on my way to the astonishing reality, faint rumors of which they had heard during so many weeks past. The German officer at [illegible] had only to hug him bodily, much against my will, as I was in haste, while the French people uttered maledictions on the "brigands." The civilian rations in Metz, which were at no time ample, [illegible] what they had left were 13 ounces of bread daily. The troops had half as much bread, and at first 24 ounces of horseflesh.

The French declare that now France has no hope but Paris, and their faith in Paris is less than it was in Metz. But there are earnest people who say that the war will only begin with the fall of Paris.

A Buffalo reporter has been excited by witnessing the loading upon an express wagon of silver pigs valued at one million two hundred thousand dollars. The memory of that spectacle will forever haunt the unfortunate reporter, living on fifteen dollars a week in currency.

LAND DEPARTMENT
OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

SALEM, OREGON, October 22, 1870.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR the information of all concerned:

First—Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd numbers within a distance of thirty miles on each side of the railroad, except lands to which a pre-emption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands coterminous with the first [illegible] of located line from East Portland to Jefferson at 12 M. February 1st, 1870. The second [illegible] located line from Jefferson to a point six miles south of Roseburg, May [illegible] 1870, and from the last named point to the California line 187[illegible].

Second—Persons who have valid pre-emption or homestead claims to any tract on an odd numbered section can purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks, and upon very favorable terms if they so desire, by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U. S. Land Office, blanks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company. Such purchase from the Company has these advantages over a purchase from the Government: The party can leave the land if necessary, he can sell the land or mortgage it; he is saved the payment of lawyers' or agents' fees and expenses of witnesses to go to the Land Office to "prove up" his claim; he can get his title perfect in less time and he can buy on credit at a low rate of interest.

Third—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior.

Purchasers are thus assured that the title they obtain is perfect. I. R. MOORES, o21f d1aw Land Agent O. & C. R. R. Co., Salem.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial St., San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 1,957.
REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.
Consultations FREE.
☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

OF

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON,

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their Stock.

Application for ONE HUNDRED SHARES [illegible] before the books were opened, and a large [illegible] Shares have been taken.

The following extracts from the Oregonian and [illegible] will convey a good idea of the plan and workings of the Association, the location of the land, etc.

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This association, of whose organization we gave an account a few days since, is now ready to dispose of shares. As it is with one exception (the Portland Homestead Association,) the pioneer organization of that kind in this city, it may be well enough to state what are its purposes and the manner in which it is proposed to conduct its operations. The purposes of these Homestead Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word. They are for the profits of their investment [illegible] the natural advance in the value of their lands, consequent upon the co-operation of many industrious shareholders—and the advance in value of all surrounding lands by reason of the [illegible] of population and demand for room [illegible] still near, the city. The Riverside [illegible] Association has a fraction over one [illegible] twenty acres of land situated just [illegible] Brooklyn on the east side of the river, the [illegible] ost boundary line being about [illegible] ferry landing at East Portland. The [illegible] in one strip along the Wallamet [illegible] half a mile in length, and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad, half a mile [illegible], the two stripes being connected near [illegible] by two rows of blocks (with a street between them) the whole forming a figure not unlike [illegible]. It is divided into 74 blocks, 709 [illegible] streets running at right angles) [illegible] al lots, along the river front. The [illegible] ber 600, worth $60 per share. It will be seen that a share thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 30 fractional lots. The fractional shares are to be sold off at the [illegible] for the benefit of the Association [illegible] coming in for the proceeds in proportion to the number of shares held. When all [illegible] taken and the Association [illegible] mine to do it, the choice of lots [illegible] will be put up at auction to the highest bidder, the proceeds of such sales, after [illegible] the original price of shares or lots, to be divided equally among the whole [illegible]. Thus, if a person wants a particular lot, and is willing to pay $100 or $200 [illegible] or less as the case may be, he pays [illegible] the lot or block as his individual [illegible], the premium being divided among the whole body of shareholders. It will be seen [illegible] everything is co-operative, and all [illegible] [illegible]. No man can make a dollar out of it without also making a dollar for every other shareholder. There is no chance for [illegible] the property, by some chance, [illegible] far below the first actual cost. [illegible] liable to happen in the case of [illegible] tract of land must be judged by [illegible] but considering the steady and [illegible] vance on real estate in this city and [illegible] hood, and at East Portland [illegible] last year or two, it [illegible] hardly [illegible] values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all [illegible] tions seem to have been taken to guard against monopolies of shares. No [illegible] buy more than the number of shares [illegible] three blocks, or twenty-four lots, and [illegible] terminating the operations of the [illegible] restricted in the same [illegible] shares may pay down $60 per share [illegible] exempt them from all assessments [illegible] pay $15 quarterly with [illegible] share, payable with the first [illegible] liable in this latter case to [illegible] other) assessment of $3 per [illegible] payment of the shares in full, [illegible] as above, the holder is entitled to [illegible] and his proportion of all the [illegible] all sources. No officer of the [illegible] any pay for services except the [illegible] gets $25 per month; so it will be [illegible] expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying [illegible] a high plateau, nearly level, at [illegible] above the water. There is no part of the [illegible] row of blocks but commands a [illegible] Portland and the river for miles [illegible] stream. That part of the tract lying [illegible] railroad is, every foot of it, of the [illegible] soil and adapted to gardening [illegible] tiful little stream of pure [illegible] almost the entire length of this [illegible] affording the means of irrigation and [illegible] ficient to supply pure water [illegible] whole tract. There is not a waste [illegible] lot in the entire tract. Under all these advantages, it would seem impossible that [illegible] be any chance of loss to shareholders [illegible] year each shareholder, if he [illegible] perfect title to as many lots as his [illegible] represent, or he may continue his [illegible] vided, with the Association while [illegible] tion may exist.—Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

We have been led to make [illegible] fact that the subject of making [illegible] skirts of this city and East Portland [illegible] discussed here among all classes, and [illegible]. Riverside, just south of East Portland [illegible] been established. The site selected [illegible] ing a little over a mile south of the ferry [illegible] shaped like the letter H, one [illegible] in length borders on the river.

From this portion of the [illegible] but a trifle above the other [illegible] forty or fifty feet above the river, [illegible] sive view of Portland, East Portland, [illegible] the Willamette river for several miles [illegible] fertile, and is partly covered with light [illegible] tract of land just wide enough for [illegible] with an avenue between them, connects the [illegible] of the H [illegible] has already been [illegible] its east. This last tract of land is [illegible] valley which is now under a high state of [illegible]. Through its whole length runs a trout brook [illegible] of which is clear as crystal. With a [illegible] Association proposes to have water [illegible] pipes to every portion of the homestead.—[illegible]
